Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 23, 2017, Overseas Shipholding Group, Inc. (“OSG” or the “Company”) announced that it has reached a resolution with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) related to a previously disclosed investigation into the failure of OSG to record certain federal income tax liabilities in its financial statements prior to the second quarter of 2012. The Company has agreed to pay a $5 million civil penalty to the SEC. Amounts payable to the SEC are subject to the approval of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

Under the terms of the resolution with the SEC, OSG neither admits nor denies the SEC’s allegations that the Company violated certain provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related rules. The SEC has acknowledged OSG’s cooperation with the SEC staff throughout the course of its investigation, as well as OSG’s implementation of remedial measures and improvements to internal accounting controls over its tax reporting functions and changes to the senior management of OSG.

The SEC’s administrative order resolving its investigation can be accessed at the SEC website at www.sec.gov.

The Company issued a press release regarding the resolution, attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

PRESS RELEASE

Overseas Shipholding Group Announces Agreement with SEC Resolution of Final Claim Allows Company to File Motion to Close Bankruptcy Case

Tampa, FL – January 23, 2017 – Overseas Shipholding Group, Inc. (NYSE: OSG) (the “Company” or “OSG”) announced today that it has reached an agreement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) fully resolving a previously disclosed SEC investigation into the failure of OSG to record certain federal income tax liabilities in its financial statements prior to the second quarter of 2012.

This agreement with the SEC would also resolve the last remaining claim in the Company’s bankruptcy case. The Company will file a motion requesting bankruptcy court approval of the resolution with the SEC and will simultaneously request an order closing the Company’s bankruptcy case.

“OSG is committed to operating its business with the utmost integrity and transparency and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations,” said Sam Norton, OSG’s president and CEO. “We are pleased to have reached an agreement to resolve this investigation and to be in a position to close the bankruptcy case. With this matter behind us, we can focus our full attention on building value for our shareholders.”

In the resolution, OSG neither admits nor denies the SEC’s allegations that the Company violated certain provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related rules. Subject to bankruptcy court approval, OSG will pay a $5 million civil penalty related to the SEC investigation, which was fully reserved for as of September 30, 2016. The SEC resolution does not require any changes to the Company’s historical financial statements. OSG previously restated its annual financial statements for 2000 through 2011 and for the quarters ended March 31 and June 30, 2012.

The SEC has acknowledged OSG’s cooperation with the SEC staff throughout the course of its investigation, as well as OSG’s implementation of remedial measures and improvements to internal accounting controls over its tax reporting functions and changes to the senior management of OSG since 2012.
